

Randall County Wheat Improved Over Past Years

The 1949 Miller's Buying Guide in the form of a colored map of the Oklahoma and Texas wheat territory has been received here. Published by the Texas-Oklahoma Wheat Improvement Program and based on actual field surveys in every wheat county it puts the spotlight on the areas growing desirable varieties for milling and baking and a spot light on the areas heavy in percentages of undesirable varieties.

Copies of the map will be used by all terminal and mill grain buyers in the Southwest during the present harvest to locate areas from which to purchase their wheat for the coming year's grind, according to Keats E. Soder, director of the improvement organization. The complete survey is held confidential to the flour millers, terminal and country elevator grain buyers, and wheat producers of the two states, at the request of Mr. Soder. However, locally the survey map shows that all but a small section of the Southeast part of Randall county is 91 to 100% acceptable. That section is 81 to 90% acceptable. Only a small section of the wheat belt is now undesirable.

Comparing the 1949 crop with the 1948 and 1947 crops from the standpoint of increased percentages of acceptable milling and baking varieties, it is noted that marked improvement has occurred. In Texas this harvest there are 477,000 acres more acceptable wheat varieties than last year and 800,000 acres more than in 1947. In round numbers this is an improvement of 28% in Oklahoma and 17% in Texas in the last two years.

Comanche and Triumph are currently the leading varieties in western Oklahoma while Westar and Comanche are leading in the Texas Panhandle and Wichita and Triumph in North Texas. All are popular with growers because of earliness, good test weight and high yields. Comanche and Westar are most in demand by millers and commercial bakers while Triumph and Wichita are mellow in their gluten properties and suitable only for family flour, advises Mr. Soder.

Fishery Survey Was Made in Palo Duro State Park

Wild life management students from Texas A. & M. College Station, spent two days studying Palo Duro Creek in Palo Duro Canyon State Park this week in connection with a fishery survey field trip.

The group is checking fish species and migration in an attempt to correlate species to stream velocity of the headwaters of the Red River. The group will collect specimens as far as the Arkansas boundary.

The survey is being made in connection with a wild life management course under the direction of Professor Frank T. Knapp who is also conducting a course in Limnology and Technique at Lake Texhoma, Denison, Texas.

Body of Former Citizen Returned Here for Interment

The body of Willie D. McKinney was returned here for burial in Dreamland Cemetery on Friday. Mrs. McKinney had died in 1947 and was buried here. The couple were the parents of Mrs. James Taylor, who lived here at the time.

Funeral services were held in the Griggs-Warren Funeral Home conducted by Rev. W. J. Phelps.

Six daughters and two sons survive. Mrs. Taylor is the only one who has lived in Canyon.

Pall bearers were: Albert Byars, J. B. Hickman, Johnnie Mace, E. B. Osburn, Archie Davis, T. S. Stevenson.

Unless You Are Ashamed of Your Guests, Notify News

Many visitors in Canyon during the course of the year are not reported to The News. This is not a very courteous way to treat your guests.

Please notify The Canyon News when you have guests in your home. They will appreciate having their names printed in the local newspaper; your neighbors will appreciate seeing this news; and certainly you are not ashamed of the fact that they visited you.

Please call 41 when you have guests, or when you are making a trip.

Roy Moreland of Amarillo was a Sunday guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Combs.

Summer Record Shattered With High Attendance

A new high attendance record in recent years has been set at West Texas State College.

When the final registration ended on Monday, the registrar's office had passed out information blanks to 1003 students. Of this number, 974 had paid their enrollment fees before the end of the registration period.

This attendance breaks all recent records. There is an unusually heavy attendance in the graduate department. Teachers are getting ready for the Gilmer-Aiken law, which will increase salaries of those with advanced degrees, as well as training.

Several years ago the enrollment was higher than the present number, largely due to the fact that teachers were required to attend summer school in order to continue their teaching certificates.

It is predicted that fully 80% of the present student body will be here for the full summer's work.

The high school division of the college has also set a new high record with an attendance of 83 students.

Government Seeks Increase on the Weekly Papers

Postmaster General Donaldson devoted much of his testimony before Congress to demanding an increase of postal rates for the newspapers. His testimony was published in the June issue of the Postal Supervisor.

His printed testimony was related to the loss of the department in rural free delivery, free city delivery and handling newspapers.

One short paragraph is given to the loss of $129 millions annually on third class mail.

Five lines were devoted to the loss on postcards, which were used by the billions.

When you use a post card, just take this into consideration: The government furnishes the card; prints the postage stamp on the card, and sells it to you for one cent. Donaldson figures that it costs the government 2.6 cents to handle this class of mail, yet it costs the users just one cent.

Congress has been holding hearings on the Donaldson demand for higher second class mailings, largely newspapers, but the strong appeal is made for increasing other classes. The deficit this year will be about $550 billion dollars, according to his estimate. The expense of the department is reported to be largely in labor.

Old Model Linotype Put Up Friday by Usery and Haley

When you visit the Panhandle-Plains Museum, go down to the basement of the first unit and take a look at the old model 1 linotype. It is one of the first linotypes shipped into the Southwest.

The machine was secured in December, and put in storage. A representative of the company kept promising that he would bring some mechanics to clean up the machine and get it in apple pie order. At the same time he promised to furnish a complete history of the machine.

After stalling around for six months, Dan K. Usery and Jack Haley of the News force decided Friday that the public should see what the old Model 1 looked like. So it was erected, and is now on display.

Of course it will not run. Some broken parts on the machine would make this impossible. Visitors in the museum, who have never seen one of these old machines should take a look at it, and then come to the News office and see one of the latest machines put out. We have two, Models 31 and 32.

L. L. Byars Moves Conoco Wholesale Office Uptown

L. L. Byars, who recently bought the wholesale dealership of Conoco is moving the offices from the east part of town to the City Service Station, which he bought and is leasing to Hank Hecker. This was formerly the Consumers Service Station, corner of 17th and 4th Ave.

Mr. Byars feels that having the offices uptown will accommodate the old and new customers of Conoco more conveniently.

Mrs. Esther Gerhardt left Thursday for her home in Long Beach, Calif., after spending two weeks in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert C. Robinson.

Tom Knighton Is Given Quality Award for 1949

T. H. Knighton of Canyon has been granted the National Quality Award for 1949 by the American United Life Insurance Company of Indianapolis, Ind., according to a notice received by the president, L. E. Crouch.

The award comes on account of the business turned in for life insurance.

4-H Rifle Team of Randall Goes to State Meet

The Randall County 4-H Rifle Club won in competition over all counties in the Panhandle Thursday. The Randall county boys shot 576 out of a possible 750.

The Potter county club stood second in score, with the Wheeler county club winning third place.

H. E. Shahan, county agent, was coach of the Randall County 4-H team. Members of the team are: Bernard Grabber, Eugene Grabber, Doyle Bourn and Phillip Busted.

The team will compete in A. & M. College this week, representing District 1 of the state.

The state contest is held under the auspices of the Extension Service of Texas.

Harvest Help To Be Handled Thru the County Agent

The Texas Employment Commission has completed arrangements for the handling of wheat harvest labor and equipment for Randall county.

Farmers in the southern part of Randall county are asked to leave their requests for labor and equipment with Miss Marcella Pingel at the office of County Agent H. E. Shahan in the Court House in Canyon. These requests should be left during the afternoon. A representative of the Texas Employment Commission will be in Canyon every day to render needed service.

Those farmers living in the northern part of Randall county should use the facilities of the Amarillo T. E. C. office which is located at 323 West Seventh Avenue.

Stork Specials

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Todd of Happy at Neblett Hospital on June 8.

On June 11 a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Thuet of Vega at Neblett Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Fleming of Wildorado are the parents of a son born at Neblett Hospital on June 11 was a son to Mr. and Mrs. Conway Kuykendall of Happy.

Sheriff Gives Storage Warning

Since the government is allowing farmers to pile wheat on the ground for storage, Sheriff M. E. Cantrell wishes to advise farmers to pile their grain as near to their houses as possible.

Wheat has disappeared from piles of grain in fields. The sheriff believes that the farmers should take the precaution of putting this grain as near the house as he can so that he could hear anyone molesting it.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

William J. Montgomery to Carlyn Wimberly, June 7.

Joe Newman to Glenna Dean Newman, June 7.

W. P. Savage to Mary Margaret Gregg, June 8.

Displaced Group Being Studied By Committee

A meeting of the local committee on displaced persons was held Monday evening at the city hall. This group represents the Council of Church Women of Canyon.

Attending the meeting were: Mrs. Bryan McDonald, president of the Council; Miss Moss Richardson, chairman of the committee; Mrs. B. E. Bollman, member of the Council; Mrs. Ples Harper, Mrs. Marion Higdon, Mrs. Carl Myers, Dr. Roy L. Johnson representing Mrs. Richard Gidden, and Mrs. Roy L. Johnson representing Mrs. T. H. Knighton.

Miss Richardson urges that citizens knowing of any jobs on which additional workers may be placed to notify her, or any member of the committee. Displaced persons must not replace any present workers; must be assured of safe, sanitary housing; and transportation from the port of entry; and that he will not become a charge on public funds.

Contributions may be deposited in the First National Bank in the name of Mrs. B. F. Bollman, who is D. P. Treasurer. The Eastern Star was the first local organization to signify a desire to assist in the project.

The committee will meet again next Monday night, and all members are requested to be present.

Studer Talked on Insurance Business at Rotary Luncheon

Floyd Studer of Amarillo talked on the contribution of life insurance to our national economy Tuesday at the Rotary luncheon. He was introduced by Tom Knighton.

Life insurance is the biggest business in the world, stated the speaker. There are 550 companies, with 200 billions invested. Nine million dollars are returned daily to the policy holders in various types of services.

Mr. Studer traced the beginning and growth of the insurance business from the time the first policy was written in 1583 to the present time.

Insurance has stood the shock of wars and depression in America. During the depression of the '30's, life insurance paid 3 billions more of benefits to policy holders than were paid by the federal government.

The medical research and mortality studies have greatly reduced the death rate of the nation.

"Life insurance is a trusteeship, with the assets belonging to the policy holders. It is the highest form of co-operation in the world," stated the speaker.

Visitors were: Pete Leland of Indianapolis, Ind.; Ralph Storman of Waterloo, Ind.; Horace Griggs, Jim McKnight, E. F. Myers, Dr. A. M. Meyer, J. E. Bowman, A. Attebury, Densel Dean, all of Amarillo; Perry Moring of Sudan; H. A. Cox of Panhandle.

ATTENDING SCHOOL IN EAST

Mrs. Mary Sligar will leave Monday for College Park, Maryland. She will attend the University of Maryland there to study Child Growth and Development Program under Dr. Dan Prescott for six weeks. Then she will go to Temple University at Philadelphia where for five weeks she will study methods of teaching and reading under Dr. Emmett A. Betts, the leader in methods of teaching reading in the United States.

Mrs. B. J. Hunter with Mr. and Mrs. Forest Hill and children of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Harden of Eunice, New Mexico, and Merle Hill of Lubbock visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harden over the week end. Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Harden are remaining in Canyon for a six week course at West Texas State.

Guests in the D. R. Weaver home Sunday evening were Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Dodson and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Scott, Jo Eddy, Kay Lynn and Betty Mae of Hereford, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Lee of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Si G. Elliott, Willa Jane and Susan of Happy and Mrs. I. W. Scott.

Visitors in the home of Mrs. W. S. Myers over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Doak and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Myers of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Price of Plainview.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Wilson had as their guests last weekend Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bredemeyer of Portland, Oregon. Mrs. Bredemeyer and Mrs. Wilson are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cabe of Abilene were weekend visitors here with their sons. They have been in Abilene for several years, moving there from Canyon.

Funeral Service For Mrs. Petty Held Monday

Funeral services were held in the First Baptist Church Monday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock for Mrs. Susan S. Petty, 70 years old, who died in Neblett Hospital Sunday, after a two weeks' hospitalization and a long, lingering illness.

Mrs. Petty was born in Lockhart, Texas and had made her home in Littlefield for a number of years before coming to Canyon two years ago.

Surviving are her husband, J. R. Petty; five daughters, Mrs. Lillie Glenn and Mrs. Ruth Baker, both of Canyon, Mrs. Maude Nelson of Wellington, Mrs. Clara Cox of Hereford and Mrs. Thelma Bonds, address unknown; and five sons, J. A. Petty of Bakersfield, California, W. J. Petty of Amherst, M. J. Petty of Kennebec, Washington, Clifton Petty of Littlefield and Porter Petty, whose address is unknown; 37 grand children and 19 great-grandchildren.

Rev. D. S. Pettijohn, pastor of the Amherst Baptist Church officiated at the services. Burial was in Dreamland.

Pallbearers were her grandsons Billy Nelson, Bob Glenn, Bryon Petty, Dwight Moore, Calvin Petty and Norman Glenn.

Miss Bertha Parker of Tucumcari, N. M., is spending the summer with her brother, Otis Parker and family.

Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Baucum of Portland, Texas, arrived Sunday night to visit in the home of her mother and sisters, Mrs. L. Angel, Mrs. Beulah Bell and Miss Irene Angel.

Continued Rains Hurt the Wheat Prospects

Rain continues in Randall county, and considerable damage has resulted to the wheat crop.

Estimate of the damage of hail and heavy rains runs from 10% to 25%. Some fields of wheat are reported to have suffered no material damage. Weeds are getting a start on other wheat, and heavy loss will result to this wheat unless the fields are sprayed to kill the weeds before harvest. Due to the low cost of plane spraying, it is estimated that many farmers will not take the chance of materially reducing the grade of their wheat, but will spray a few days before harvest.

Noah Amason brought the first load of wheat to Canyon Saturday. This wheat tested 61. The Farmers Elevator, buyers of the wheat, states that the grain was good, being of the Early Triumph variety.

Rain this week measured 1.07 inches Thursday morning; 1.35 inches Saturday morning; .60 of an inch Tuesday morning.

This brought the total rainfall for 1949 up to 16.65 inches.

The continued rainfall is damaging some of the early varieties of wheat. Fields which were estimated a few weeks ago to produce at least 30 bushels to the acre, will not make more than 20 bushels, according to revised estimates.

The weatherman predicts more rain for the Panhandle, in spite of the urgent need for immediate dry weather in order to save the wheat crop.

July 1 Is the Deadline For Tornado Gifts

The deadline for contributions to the tornado relief fund has been set for July 1st. All those who wish to make contributions to the rehabilitation of tornado sufferers in the north part of Randall county are urged to do so this week.

The following contributions were received this week:

C. M. Dowlen $10

E. A. Michael $10

Centerview H. D. Club $10

Representatives of Randall 4-H Clubs Attend Round-Up

Anita Ruthardt of Zita Girls 4-H Club and Mildred Bryan of Fairview Girls 4-H Club will represent the girls 4-H Clubs of Randall County at the State 4-H Round-Up at College Station, Tuesday and Wednesday, June 14 and 15. Mary Elizabeth Jennings of Zita 4-H girls' entry in the State Dress Revue held in connection with the Round-Up.

Mrs. Emil Olsen, sponsor, and these three girls will leave Amarillo early Monday morning by chartered bus with some forty-three other 4-H Club girls and boys and their sponsors from over the Panhandle.

Museum Committee Plans Starting on Construction Work

At a meeting of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society's executive committee in Amarillo Saturday, Guy Carlander was selected as architect for the building. He will draw plans to complete the second unit.

A financial drive will be started for the purpose of raising the needed money to finish the building.

Double Accident in the Sanders Family

The second accident in the family of Mrs. Dan F. Sanders occurred on Saturday in Nacogdoches when her mother, Mrs. T. J. Hanna, fell on the front steps of the family home and broke both of her arms between the wrist and elbow.

The first accident occurred when the family car was hit near Eastland and the pelvic bone of Miss Sanders received a compound fracture.

Mr. Sanders flew to Fort Worth Sunday to be with his family for the day. Miss Ellen is improving nicely and hopes to return home soon.

Bill Miller Goes to Dalhart Schools

Bill Miller, son of Coach and Mrs. W. A. (Gus) Miller, has been elected basketball coach in the Dalhart schools, and assistant football coach.

Bill received his degree from West Texas State this spring. He was a star basketball player on the Buffalo squad.

Mrs. R. L. Campbell, Mrs. Leona Campbell, Mrs. Tribble Shepherd and sons visited in Borger Saturday.

Mrs. Beulah Bell will leave this week end to visit for a few days in Canadian, and to attend to business in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Memorial To Be Held For Late L. G. Allen

A memorial service is to be held Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Baptist Church for the late L. G. Allen. The ashes of the deceased were received from California on Monday by the Griggs-Warren Funeral Home, for interment by the side of his wife in Dreamland Cemetery.

Dr. B. F. Fronabarger, head of the English department of West Texas State, will make the memorial address. A faculty quartet composed of Dr. J. B. Roberts, William Wilson, Crannell Tolliver and Dr. A. Kirk Knott will sing. Lewis Soelzing will play a violin solo.

Active pallbearers will be C. R. Burrow, Dan F. Sanders, Dr. Ples Harper, Mitchell Jones, Dr. L. F. Sheffy, Claude Osborn of Priona.

Honorary pallbearers are: Dr. J. A. Hill, Dr. D. A. Shirley, J. D. Barker, Hatcher Brown, Dr. Wallace R. Clark, Herschel Coffee, Dr. S. H. Condon, J. L. Duflet, J. A. Gillis, Lee Gilmore, A. K. Goodman, Dr. Lee Johnson, T. B. McCarter, Jerry Mallin, W. A. Miller, Milton Morris, C. A. Murray, Dr. R. A. Neblett, Frank R. Phillips, Dr. C. A. Plerle, F. E. Savage, W. L. Vaughan, Dr. J. S. Humphreys, Cecil Briggs, Boone McClure.

Mr. Allen was a member of the original faculty of the college and was the first dean. He retired 15 years ago. Because of poor health he was taken to California in December in order that his children might give him their personal care. Easton and Harper Allen, sons of the deceased, came from California for the services. A daughter, Miss Hazel Allen, died three days before Mr. Allen and was cremated on the morning of his death. She is buried in California.

Amarillo Bank Has Given $500 for a Memorial to Pipkin

David M. Warren, editor of the Panhandle Herald, and past president of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society writes as follows:

J. H. Paul, president of the American National Bank of Amarillo, has sent The Herald editor a check for $500.00 payable to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society as a memorial gift for the late H. C. Pipkin.

The bank's gift was made in honor of Pipkin, long time director of the financial institution, who also headed the financial campaign for the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society for many years.

One of Pipkin's ambitions was to get many citizens of the area to include gifts to the Historical Society in their wills. The late Albert Combs of Pampa left the Society $2,000 in his will. Pipkin told this writer that had Combs lived a few weeks longer, he undoubtedly would have changed his will to leave the Society around $15,000.

The Amarillo bank's board of directors had great respect for the ability of Hermon Pipkin and the gift to the Historical Society is an appropriate way to memorialize him. Directors have told this writer how they used to have an enjoyable "state of the union" discussion following board meetings with Pipkin always making timely remarks.

It is through such memorial gifts as these that one's influence reaches beyond the mere years that are allotted to him on this earth.

BIRTHDAY HONORED

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Boyd of Amarillo honored James Boone with a birthday dinner on his 26th birthday, Thursday, June 9, at their home in Amarillo. Other guests were Mrs. J. C. Curb and son and Walter Adcock.

Please, Please, Send Us Changes In Your Address

The new postal regulations for changes in address is in effect.

This regulation requires the postmaster to return to the newspaper all papers which do not have proper addresses—two cents collect.

If you move, and wish your paper changed, please notify The Canyon News in advance of your move.

Papers which are returned to us cost a lot of money. From now on, those who do not notify us of changes in address will be required to pay 10 cents for changes which are returned to us by the postoffice.

If you move and do not notify The News of your changes, your paper will be returned to us; we will be out 2 cents for each copy thus returned; and you must send 10 cents before your subscription is reinstated.

Thanks for your co-operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Elsworth Barnard and son of Morton spent Sunday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bellah.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

We Are Playing With the Job Of Law Enforcement in Texas

We have stated time and again throughout the years that the criminal laws of Texas are written for the protection of the criminals, rather than the protection of the law abiding citizens.

Nearly every day some one in Canyon busts out, "There should be a law against it." Meaning of course the thing they personally oppose.

Just who would enforce all of these laws that the people think that they want? Would those who scream out for law enforcement take their responsibility and assist the peace officers enforce the law? Would they be willing to turn in the law breakers when they see infractions of the law? Would they serve on grand juries and trial juries when the cases are in court? Would they refuse to go on the bond of law breakers and let them stay in jail?

Why not fire all peace officers, and tear down jails unless we are willing to assume our responsibility as citizens of a civilized country?

Why do we insist that criminals be treated with gloves, considering the fact that so many of them would shoot you on sight, or rob you if they had the opportunity?

We were amazed a few weeks ago to see criticism of officers who had shot a criminal who was running away from the law, which he had willfully broken!

It was all right for the officers to take their lives in their hands and run the risk of being mowed down by this escaping criminal; yes, that was their sworn duty.

But stop the criminal as he fled from the scene of the crime? No, no, heavens forbid! Let him go on, and on, in his career of crime, even to murdering his fellow man.

Other officers have been criticized for throwing up road blocks over Texas for the purpose of catching those who would kill or maim their fellow men for lack of common precautions on the highways. Shall we turn this class loose on the highways of Texas, and tell them they are beyond the laws of the state? That they are not accountable for their acts of violence? That it is all right to kill or cripple other folks who use the highways?

One of the most amazing things that has taken place was in district court of Potter county last week. An attorney argued that two prisoners had the legal right to beat up a jailer, and to make an attempt to escape from jail! It mattered not that the jailer was more than 70 years of age, and was helpless in the hands of two young ruffians who have made life miserable for peace officers. It mattered not if they had struck the jailer and would have killed him had not trustees interfered. The men had a legal right, so the attorney thought, to beat up the jailer and try to escape just because they were being illegally held in jail after charges of their past crimes had been filed.

The lawyer did not say whether or not he had legally attempted to secure the release of the young prisoners, whom he thinks are illegally held. As a matter of fact, there is no way to hold any person in jail if he has a legal right to liberty and freedom.

Perhaps the jury agreed with this lawyer that it is legal to beat up the jailer, as 11 jurors refused to convict the young hoodlum of attempted jail breaking! All of this comes down to the very, very serious condition which confronts the peace officers: Do the people appreciate the fact that every time they go out after a criminal they are subjecting themselves to gun fire, and even death at the hands of the criminal; and, does the public appreciate the fact that these law enforcement officers are taking a terrible risk at the hands of criminals, whom the public will no doubt turn loose, if and when, they come to trial.

We are playing with law enforcement in this country.

No wonder it is next to impossible to convict federal criminals for anything less than income tax evasion!

Women Drinkers Will Soon Be Pictured to Popularize Booze

The Newsman could never see any good in liquor. All you need to do is step inside a saloon to see the human derelicts who hang around the joint.

A few years ago Americans were almost horrified to see big cigarette ads showing women smokers. These advertisements have popularized cigarettes with women.

We are now told that you see two drunken women for every drunken man. The ads of the liquor houses always picture men. But when the liquor dealers will decide to popularize liquor by showing women drinking it is hard to estimate. But it is coming.

Don't be surprised any day to pick up your favorite newspaper or magazine and see a prominent actress swigging the stuff.

Where Liquor Served Makes A Difference With the Law

The State Liquor Control Board has been having a tough time down at Lubbock enforcing the law. A couple of weeks ago the VFW hall was raided and several cases of beer taken. Yes, it is against the law to serve liquor in unauthorized places.

Chas. Guy, forceful editor of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, protested the raid. He pointed out the fact that liquor is sold by the drink at a certain club in Lubbock, and furthermore that slot machines line the walls of the club. Everyone knows that the sale of liquor by the drink is a violation of the law in Texas, and that slot machines are prohibited.

Whether you drink or gamble with the VFW, or with the classy bunch at the exclusive club seems to make a difference!

Like old age assistance, the pension for soldiers is a political football. After World War I, pensions created much concern. Pensions are of more concern today than 25 years ago because more persons are involved. Very few people believe that pensions will be passed either in Texas or in Washington, but it makes for a beautiful opportunity for the lawmakers to strut their stuff, and spread their records before the folks back home.

The Texas Press Association will meet in Galveston this weekend. Hope we shall be able to make it, but these are very, very uncertain times for travel and other unforeseen difficulties. If we are not around for the next few days, we shall be in Galveston.

The rewards that come from free work are what one might expect, if one is looking for rewards.

Why is it, when men or women act like children, they always imitate the worst traits of childhood?

Few Citizens Understand Need Of Reforms in the Legislature

The Belden poll comes up with a release which says that the people will again defeat the proposed increase of pay for the Texas legislators. A reason is that few people know much about the pay of this body, and judge the entire membership by the antics of a few members.

The Dallas News comes forward with a proposal which will be widely approved by voters. That is, to cut the membership in both houses, and to safeguard the interest of the State in requiring active attendance upon session before the members are paid.

Having served in two regular sessions and five extra sessions, we can see the justification of these suggestions. The suggestions are wholly in the hands of the members of the legislature. If the members feel that they are entitled to more pay, certainly they should justify their claim by doing a better job, and being willing to increase their work, rather than shirk on the job.

The average citizen is prone to believe that the only expense of holding a session of the legislature is the salaries drawn by the members. As a matter of fact these salaries constitute only about half of the expense. There are many, many employees to be paid; extra incidentals in the way of postage, telephone and telegrams, newspapers, extra porters, supplies of all kinds, etc., etc., which are hard for the layman to understand.

In years past there has been too many idlers among the members. Naturally we would not chide the present body without observation. But it is true that the tendency has been toward more and better recess periods, and less and less actual time in sessions.

At any rate, the voters of Texas will have the opportunity to speak out when the amendment is presented to them in September. This will be a special election, with a very, very low number of poll tax payments, and probably little interest on the part of the voters.

Time To Consider Drafting Board of Education Member

Last week The News called attention to a pending election, which will be held in October for a member of the new state board of education under the Gilmer-Aiken law. Friends of the schools of Texas should get busy and get some person who is qualified to give service to the State and to the children of Texas.

The pay is zero. The opportunity for service is great. Frankly we believe that the legislature made a mistake in not providing for a little more than absolute expenses of the members while attending the meetings of the board.

Those who will serve on the board must be of one of two classes: They must be financially independent, which sometimes means that they will be ultra conservative in their thinking; or they must have an ulterior motive in seeking the position.

The new law provides that the new members will either have to file as a candidate with the Secretary of State; or be drafted by 100 citizens.

There will be 31 members on the new board. They will represent all Congressional districts. They will have absolute control of the school system of Texas. Their obligations and opportunities will be great.

It is time that citizens devote a lot of time to thinking about the person whom they can draft from this section to represent us on the board.

No Highbrow Stuff Among the Country Newspapers of Texas

Terry County Herald, Brownfield: "No need to longer bother about the matter, teachers. The University of Texas admonishes the teachers of Texas to simply load up their troubles in the old kit bag, and bring 'em to the University this summer for solution. Now if the U. of T. will invent some way to help the poor, downtrodden country weekly editors out of some of their manifold troubles, the press is with them to the 'Nth degree. But perhaps the professors are already well aware that the press boys are helpless."

Well, well, Jack, you have a lesson to learn! The president of the University of Texas is reported to have said that the press of Texas was not deserving better consideration from the University because the country press did not pay the fabulous prices paid by the big papers, or by other professions. Therefore, why waste time and money on the press. In other words, the dollar consideration of the country press has slipped far beneath that of a few years ago, before war times, when inflation hit all trades and businesses, except the country press.

Don't worry too much, Jack, one of these days when the depression hits, and the water is squeezed out of inflation, the country press will again resume its former financial standing in this old battered world.

Board of Control Not Infallible

A State Representative takes The News to task for criticizing his bill which would allow Commissioners Courts to turn over to the Board of Control the purchase of road machinery. Perhaps this law maker has never had dealings with the Board of Control. He has never sent an order to the Board of Control for a definite, specific article pictured on a certain page of a catalogue, only to receive a substitute, inferior article from another firm which deals in such stuff! If he really wants to know how the Board of Control evaluates its purchases, just ask any institution in Texas which has had to buy through the Board of Control. We had just six years of experience as a basis for this criticism!

We see where the Postmaster General comes up with the idea that the country press should be penalized by increasing its postage about 600% on the grounds that newspapers generally are not cooperative and do not get their papers to the local postoffice until near closing time. This creates an undue burden on the postoffice, says PMG Donaldson. He will have to hatch up a better excuse. Under postoffice regulations, no second class mail matter, including newspapers, is mailed unless received within specified hours. The PMG fails to report on the vast mass of postage free letters which are stuffed into the post-offices every day at closing hours!

Religion is a great help in time of trouble, but you must have the religion to receive the help.

Flattery is one way some people pave the walkway of life, but it often costs more than it is worth.

Most of the people who borrow money are optimists beyond ordinary reason and average intelligence.

What Would a Town Be Without Store Any Kind

The U. S. Department of Labor has published an attractive 142-page booklet, called "The Gift of Freedom," which is being widely distributed in Europe by ERP. Subtitled "A Study of the Economic and Social Status of Wage Earners in the United States," its purpose is to show peoples of other lands just how the individual fares under our system.

One photograph depicts an average small town main business street, showing shoppers' cars and typical stores. A handsome building housing an outlet for a national department store chain is seen. Adjoining it are other shops, independently owned and selling various kinds of goods. Other photographs depict the interiors of stores, and emphasize the attractiveness and abundance of the displays.

To most Europeans, with their subsistence living standards, these photos will seem almost unbelievable. And they have an often overlooked significance for Americans as well. The retail store is the heart of American communities, and most especially the small towns and the villages. It brings the people in from the surrounding farm areas—the Saturday afternoon and evening shopping tour is a well-entrenched American institution in the grass roots. The store is still a place where old social contacts are renewed and new ones made.

As a general thing, retailers are among the first to lend their support to worth while civic undertakings of the town as an entity.

Think of your town without its stores! There would be mighty little left.

FOOL QUESTION

"Daughter," said dad, sternly, "I hope when you are with that young man there is none of this petting and kissing foolishness."

"Oh, be yourself," retorted daughter. "We're not married, and you can't expect us to spend all our time scolding when we are together, the way you and mother do."

BOSSIE'S LITTLE WEAKNESS

A city girl visiting her uncle on the farm was watching a cow chewing her cud.

"Pretty fine cow, that," said her uncle as he came by.

"Yes," said the girl, "but doesn't it cost a lot to keep her in chewing gum?"

GOOD TIME WAS HAD BY ALL

Mother: Why didn't you call me when Mr. Clive kissed you?

Daughter: He threatened me.

Mother: Threatened?

Daughter: Yes, not to kiss me any more.

EXPLICIT

Foster-Milam Wed in Impressive Double-Ring Rites

In an impressive home wedding, Miss Mary Alice Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Foster of Wayside, became the bride of Mr. J. K. Milam, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Milam, Sr., of Sudan, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of her parents.

Rev. C. W. Williams of Vigo Park read the double-ring service before an improvised altar. Tall baskets of white gladioli flanking a three-branched candelabra on either side of the fireplace were complemented by a gorgeous spray of white and peach gladioli on the mantle.

Mrs. Ples Harper of Canyon played appropriate selections as a prelude and accompanied Mrs. Glenn Dowlen, who sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because." Mrs. Harper played Mendelsson's "Wedding March" to herald the appearance of the bridal party and gave a musical background to the reading of the rites.

Mrs. E. B. Lanier of Lubbock, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. Her gown was of gold tulle with a full skirt. Her bouquet was a nosegay of white Estereed daisies.

Miss Evelyn Milam, sister of the bridegroom, as maid of honor wore green net over satin, styled with moulded bodice and full skirt. Her bouquet was a nosegay of white daisies.

Dean Foster, brother of the bride, was best man.

Groomsmen and ushers were Myron Morgan of Sudan, Gordon Foster, brother of the bride, and Foster Parker, cousin of the bride.

Candlelighters were Dick Foster, brother of the bride, and Jerry Parker, cousin of the bride.

Miss Maedell Foster of Colorado City, cousin of the bride, gown in a green French sheer gown presided at the guest book.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Jack Foster, was a picture in white satin. Her fitted bodice was made with sweetheart neckline joined to a lace yoke seeded with pearls. The graceful three-quarter-length sleeves were complemented by long white lace mitts. The full skirt terminated in a cathedral train. Her finger-tip veil of illusion cascaded from a halo of lilies of the valley. She carried a white satin Bible topped with a white orchid. For something old she wore her grandmother Foster's cameo. Something new was a white linen handkerchief from China.

Mrs. Foster chose for her daughter's wedding a rose crepe gown with black accessories and a corsage of vanda orchids.

Mrs. Milam, mother of the bridegroom was gown in a grey print silk with black accessories and vanda orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony the bridal party was honored with a reception. The serving table was laid with a drawn-work linen cloth and appointed with crystal. White and peach gladioli made the attractive centerpiece. The three-tiered wedding cake mounted with a miniature bride and groom was served by Mrs. Otis Parker, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Gordon Foster served the frosted punch.

The bride chose a tan gabardine suit with navy blue accessories to travel to Sweetwater Lake where they will honeymoon in the summer cabin of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Foster.

Mrs. Milam is a graduate of Happy High School and is a junior student at West Texas State. Mr. Milam graduated from Sudan high school, attended West Texas State and is a junior in University of Oklahoma. They will be at home for the summer at Vigo Park.

Guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Milam, Sr., parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Clements, Mrs. J. A. Harris and Bruce Robertson of Sudan; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gregory of Slaton; Dr. E. P. Stewart of Tulsa; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Foster of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Foster of Colorado City; Miss Bertha Parker of Tucumcari, New Mexico; Dr. and Mrs. Ples Harper, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dowlen, Mr. and Mrs. Hosea Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. I. F. SoRelle, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Fulton, Jr., of Canyon; Mr. and Mrs. Hobart McManigal, Miss Betty McCarley, Miss Joline Whitlow, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Parker and sons of Happy; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Mahler, Mr. and Mrs. George Denney, Mrs. A. L. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, Miss Ina Thomas, Leroy Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Foster and Jackie, and Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Heisler of Wayside.

To compliment the bridal party of the Foster-Milam wedding, Mrs. Otis Parker, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Parker's sister-in-law, Miss Bertha Parker, served a yard party supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Foster following the wedding rehearsal Saturday evening.

This is your day, Dad. Will you take time out to listen to some of the things I want very much to say? You are always deep in doing something; somehow there's never a right time for handing you bouquets. I am afraid we'd both act foolish if I tried to tell you, face to face, out loud, fancy words of gratitude and praise. Even on paper I can't use sticky adjectives for you, Dad... that's not your dish. Orchids, adjectives... Mother loves them, God bless her!... but for you, Dad, I'll put it to you straight: YOU ARE AN OK GUY, THROUGH AND THROUGH.

I am beginning to see what it takes to hold up your end of the plank, Dad... to keep plugging along, day, after day, facing the same old grind, taking the licks from a crabbed public, juggling living expenses, figuring what's best to do now and planning for a family's future. STAMINA, DAD, FORTITUDE; THOSE ARE WORDS FOR YOU.

I am beginning to notice that it is a long time between shoes with you, Dad, that you postpone buying a new hat, that you manage to make one suit serve for several, that you don't buy yourself books any more. You don't look as slick as you used to. The rent is never overdue. There are no collectors banging our door. There's always good food on the table. Mother belongs to clubs and wears pretty clothes. Sister and Brother and I have everything we need... without a hitch; we haven't known any money shortage. You fight that battle for us, Dad, without one word of complaint. That's LIVING LOVE, UNSELFISHNESS.

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that family and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you"—form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

There's something else I've learned: All Dads are not like you, and I am glad you are mine. I visit some friends and see their Dads drinking; I hear them cursing and swearing, and squabbling over money. It means a great deal to me, Dad, that I had to leave home to find that ugliness. CLEAN, DAD, THAT'S ANOTHER WORD FOR YOU... AND FINE. Thank you, Dad; my heritage is rich.

Competition Has Forced Prices to a Lower Level

When we go shopping, most of us take for granted that the stores will have what we want. We may patronize chains, independents, or any other kind of retail outlet. Whatever the kind, we expect to find a wide selection of goods, intelligent salespeople, a courteous welcome, and good service. That expectation is usually justified.

The vanished crossroads emporium didn't have to give much effort to pleasing the customers—it had a monopoly of the local business and people took what it offered and paid the price or went without. Then, as the nation grew and transportation improved, more stores were opened. Real competition appeared. The indifferent merchant, or the merchant who wanted to earn an excessive profit, found that the going was getting tougher. The chains came along and pioneered the idea of mass distribution with a very small profit on each sale. The independent followed suit and met the new competition successfully.

We see the result today. The typical small town store carries the same kind of goods that are found in huge metropolitan stores. Prices are about the same. Displays, service, and sanitation are comparable. And the reason for it is competition, which is the staunch protector of the consumer's interest.

Stores of the future will be better than those of today, just as those of today are better than those of the past. Merchants will continue to try to outdo the man next door, and to offer more inducements. And that will work to the advantage of everyone.

Julius Krug, Secretary of the Interior is being mentioned again as likely to be the next Cabinet member to step out. Mr. Truman is understood to want to reward Oscar Chapman, Under Secretary of the Interior, with the top job. Whenever a change is suggested publicly, however, the President tends to pull back and to insist that he doesn't want outsiders to call the turn on his personal changes.

Investigators for committee in Congress are hearing stories about political and financial maneuvers supposed to be revolving around a very large chemical concern taken over by the Government during the war as alien property. Control of this big property is a rich prize and there is reported to be an increase in the political maneuvering related to who gets control.

Senator Robert Taft, Republican leader, is discovering that some important labor leaders think they can gain more in the way of labor-law changes by working with him than against him. There are hints that, in return for GOP aid in altering the Taft-Hartley Act, the CIO might make less of a fight against Senator Taft in his 1950 campaign.

Philip Murray, CIO president, still finds that leaders in Government jump when he cracks the whip. A blast from Mr. Murray caused Administration leaders to put labor-law changes ahead of the Atlantic Alliance on the Senate calendar.

Chinese Communist leaders would like to ease up on anti-American propaganda and encourage U. S. trade, perhaps even loans. But rank-and-file Communists are so sold on attacks on U. S. that they might not go along with a theory that America isn't an ogre after all.

Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, apparently will need to accept some reservations in order to get Senate ratification of the treaty putting U. S. into an Atlantic Alliance. Senate leaders want to spell out a little more the exact obligations that U. S. assumes in Europe and in regard to colonies of European powers.

President Truman is going to stand by his plans for a welfare state as his program for countering a setback in business. The President is cool to the idea of trying to sell Congress on an antideflation program involving a lot of new proposals for Government spending and lending.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Holt and daughters, Virginia and Ann are visiting with relatives in Gatesville. Virginia and Ann will remain for a good portion of the summer.

Mrs. C. E. Moreman and daughter, Mary, of Mineral Wells, are visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Pierce and daughter, Mrs. Moreman and Mrs. Pierce are sisters.

Louise Conatser Became Bride of Ross L. Russell Sunday Afternoon

MR. AND MRS. ROSS L. RUSSELL

Nuptial vows were solemnized Sunday, June 5, for Louise Conatser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. V. Conatser, and Ross L. Russell, son of Mrs. Viola Russell.

Rev. Benjamin Bollman, pastor, read the double-ring service in the First Presbyterian Church.

Attending the bride as matron-of-honor, Mrs. O. E. Luster, sister of the bride, wore an aqua crepe street length dress. Her corsage was white gardenias.

Dale Russell, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Miss Anita Davis played appropriate selections as a nuptial prelude and accompanied Miss Nancy Lee who sang "I Love You Truly" and "Always." The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

Entering on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride was attired in a pink lace street length dress. She wore a white gardenia corsage and carried a white Bible topped with a colonial nosegay of white Shasta daisies with white satin ribbon streamers.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Roberts.

Out of town guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Clifford J. Roberts and sons, Jimmy and Jerry, Mrs. Anna Brock, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hickmott and son from Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Herb Sullivan of Panhandle; Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Roberts of Dalhart; Mr. and Mrs. Orvel Luster and children of Turkey; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee and Nancy, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hutchinson and Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Hutchinson from Spearman, where Mrs. Russell has taught mathematics in the high school the past two years.

After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home at 2111 Second Avenue in Canyon.

FAREWELL PARTY FOR GUESTS GIVEN BY MRS. MARY SIMON

On Monday, June 6, Mrs. Mary Simon gave a farewell party for her daughters and son-in-law, Mrs. Marie Gallon of Costa Mesa, California, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hill of Pasadena, California; her sister, Mrs. Millie Anderson of Wichita, Kansas, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Tingley and Gertrude Henry and children of El Paso who had been her house guest.

Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Broadus of Wildorado, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Broadus of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Tony Simon; Mr. and Mrs. Herick Simon, Lucille and Romona; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Simon and Jimmy; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Simon, Patricia and Linda; Mr. and Mrs. John Dietz and children; Mrs. Paul Sullivan and children; Annice Simon, Billy Thomson and the hostess.

Ice cream and cake were served.

HERBERT BREITLING HONORED ON BIRTHDAY WITH PARTY

Mrs. J. M. Breitling assisted by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Herbert Breitling, and her daughter, Mrs. W. T. Smith, honored her son, Herbert Breitling, with a birthday dinner Sunday, June 12, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Breitling.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Breitling from Hereford, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Breitling and son from Spearman, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Smith and two daughters from Hereford, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Simpson from Channing, Miss Alice Thompson from El Reno, Oklahoma, and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Breitling; Miss Edith Neff, who has recently returned from nursing duties in California.

Misses Bonita and Alberta Brown with Miss June Meyers of Amarillo left Wednesday for Camp Audubon, Colorado. Miss Bonita will be Junior Counsellor in canoeing.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin Huff and children of Wichita Falls are spending the summer in Canyon while Mr. Huff is working on his Masters degree at West Texas State.

Thomas Gilmore of Ringgold, Texas visited with his aunt, Mrs. T. W. Collins, Monday.

OUR DEMOCRACY

by Mat

TYPICALLY AMERICAN

IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF AMERICA MANY TYPICALLY AMERICAN QUALITIES HAVE COME TO BE ASSOCIATED WITH PARTICULAR SECTIONS OF THE COUNTRY. THE TERM "YANKEE THRIFT," FOR EXAMPLE, STEMS FROM NEW ENGLAND, YET WE RECOGNIZE THRIFT AS A TRADITIONAL VIRTUE OF AMERICANS IN GENERAL.

NO BETTER EVIDENCE OF THRIFT AS A NATIONAL CHARACTERISTIC CAN BE FOUND THAN IN THE OWNERSHIP OF LIFE INSURANCE BY FOUR OUT OF FIVE AMERICAN FAMILIES.

THEY GAIN, THROUGH THEIR THRIFT, SECURITY FOR THE FUTURE AND CONFIDENCE TO GO FORWARD TO FRESH ACHIEVEMENTS.

Dr. J. A. Hill Has Lived In Canyon For Past 39 Years

Hugh Park, editor of Van Buren, Ark., (Bob Burns' home town), tells about a man who said, "My hearing is bad and I can't afford a hearing aid."

A friend said, "I'll tell you how you can help your hearing—at no expense."

"How?"

"Get you a piece of wire, loop one end over your ear and run it down inside your coat."

The other objected, "But without a battery and an earphone, how could that possibly help?"

His friend said, "When folks see the wire, they will talk louder."

Park took your columnist for a drive. From the top of a hill, we looked down (as though in an airplane) on a noble scene: the twisting course of Lee's Creek, its water a beautiful green, and the broad Arkansas River, spanned by a bridge almost half a mile long. Park talked of plans for dams which would provide power, irrigation and navigation.

We had dinner, which was served by the ladies of the church, in the church basement, and that night had supper in a log cabin tavern reached by a winding drive to the top of a mountain—the steak was the finest I've ever eaten.

That afternoon, we visited the discovery well of a new gas field. It is, in one respect, the most remarkable gas (or oil) field in all my experience—there was not a single gate to open in getting there!

Oldest of all newspaper sayings is, "If a dog bites a man, that's not news; but if a man bites a dog, that's news." Well, this writer once chronicled such an occurrence. It was in Fort Worth. The biter was not a man, but a boy, a very small boy. The family next door to us owned a dog, which was a great pet, but one night some friends dropped in with their little son and the child received so much attention, the dog became jealous and crowded him to the wall—whereupon the boy bit the dog!

PROGRESS

A Virginia gentleman reports a heartening instance of progress in the process of unifying the armed forces. Every afternoon, the personnel of an Army Signal Corps post near Arlington drills to the tune of "Anchors Aweigh."

LOCATED

The Bulletin, in Philadelphia, asks, "What's become of the oldtime rocking chair?" You mean the one that inched its way along the summer hotel porch, and disappeared over the edge?

The President is finding it increasingly difficult to recruit big-name businessmen to take key Government jobs. He has had recent turn-downs from several men who were offered important positions.

So many lies have been written about us that I'm extremely wary of talking to newspaper men. Travel, travel a lot. That is my desire. I have so much to forget—Marie-Jose, former queen of Italy.

Father's Day Cards and many other appropriate gifts for Father's Day at Warwick's.

came up into the buggy. We slept that night on a wagon sheet in front of a log fire in a cowboy bunk house on the bank of the canyon where I ate my first real, honest-to-goodness cowboy cooking. Had a lot of fun on that trip, and the cowboys gave the college professor a new kind of examination. They had an I. Q. test all their own.

Clarendon was the cultural capital of the Panhandle, and there was a school for teachers (summer normal) that summer. Dr. R. B. Cousins, West Texas State's founder and first president, sent me down there to teach psychology—the only subject I ever failed in school. On the way down I stopped over in the metropolitan city of Amarillo, with its near 10,000 people. Considered investing 35 cents there in real estate, but my banker advised me to use in on my grocery bills. Had I made that investment, I might have been a Polk street plutocrat long before this. But if all "ifs" were airplanes, tramps might fly.

BUSINESS OUTLOOK

Pointing out that there has been a relaxation of inflationary pressures, evident in late 1948, Secretary of Commerce Charles Sawyer declared that "by any normal standard of historic comparison, our business situation is good." Whether this situation would continue, he said, "will depend as much upon psychological factors as upon material factors."

JOB OUTLOOK

Students graduating from high schools and colleges, will find that in the next few years the following fields will be overstocked with applications for jobs: engineering, law, accounting, business administration, personnel-work, and journalism, according to Ewan Clague, labor statistics commissioner. Continued shortages will be found in teaching, nursing, medicine, dentistry, medical service occupations, and social work.

Father's Day Cards at Warwick's.

TRAFFIC DEATHS

There were 6,610 traffic deaths in the first three months of 1949, an average increase of seven per cent over the same period of 1948, according to Philip B. Fleming, chairman of the President's Highway Safety Conference. The total 1948 toll was 32,000, two per cent less than in 1947.

Wedding Date for Peggy Boswell and Dr. Sam Johnson Announced

MISS PEGGY RUTH BOSWELL

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Boswell of Sanatorium, Mississippi, are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their youngest daughter, Peggy Ruth, to Dr. Samuel Britton Johnson, son of Dr. and Mrs. Lee L. Johnson of Canyon. The wedding is planned for Saturday afternoon, June 25, at 4 o'clock in the Sanatorium Chapel. The Reverend J. O. Ware, Sanatorium chaplain, and the Reverend W. M. Williams, retired chaplain, will officiate.

Miss Boswell received her Bachelor of Arts degree in music from Sophie Newcomb College in New Orleans in June, 1948, and for the past year has been a member of the Magee High School music faculty. She graduated from Magee High School and attended Belhaven College for one year before going to Newcomb.

At Newcomb she was a member of Chi Omega sorority, the Opera group, the A Capella choir and other musical organizations. She was president of the A Capella choir, an officer in the Westminster Fellowship and was chosen as a maid in the May Day court.

Dr. Johnson graduated from Tulane Medical School in June, 1948, and is now completing his internship at Knoxville General Hospital in Knoxville, Tennessee. He graduated from College High School in Canyon and received his Bachelor of Science degree from West Texas State College.

During the war he served with the U. S. Navy. He is a member of Alpha Sigma Xi fraternity and Alpha Chi, honorary scholarship fraternity. He is also a member of Alpha Kappa Kappa, medical fraternity.

At Tulane he was prominent in musical activities in addition to his medical honors. He was a member of the A Capella choir and the Opera group.

NIECE OF JOHN KNIGHT WAS MARRIED IN DALLAS

Miss Elizabeth Antoinette Campbell of Tyler and William Henry Crain of Austin were married in Dallas Saturday.

The bride is a niece of John Knight of this city. Her mother was a resident of Canyon in the early days and was reared in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Knight.

Both the bride and bridegroom are members of the Red Barn Theatre organization of Westboro, Mass., where they will make their home.

CANADIAN FLASH AND MISS NANCY BISHOP MARRIED

Two prominent students of West Texas State were married Thursday at Amarillo. They were Miss Nancy Bishop of Floydada and Bill Cross of Canadian.

Both are students in West Texas and will continue their studies next year.

Bill Cross has been an outstanding football star throughout his college career, and will finish his senior year next June.

John L. Lewis May Cause Defeat of T-H Repeal Bill

John L. Lewis called out all miners in the nation for this week. He says that there is a 60 day supply of coal above ground.

Democratic leaders who hoped to secure repeal or modification of the Taft-Hartley law are dismayed. The antics of Lewis is likely to cause Congress to object to repeal of the law since there is no cause in the proposed substitute measure to cover such cases as the present walk out, or "week's vacation," as Lewis terms it.

As thousands cheer, Defense Chief Louis Johnson backs his way through departmental red tape, with old jungle fighters wondering how he does it in a business suit.

Local Boys Are Warned on Questionnaires

Selective Service Board No. 18, with the office at Hereford, and which includes the four counties, Parmer, Castro, Deaf Smith and Randall, wishes to warn all men who have received their questionnaires to get them back into the Board office at the time for their return, the time being given on the questionnaire; if these forms are not returned on the date or as nearly as possible to the date of return, the board must report the matter to the FBI.

Some Veterans think because they have served their time in the armed forces they do not have to return the questionnaire; but they are under the same law as the boy who has not seen any service if they are within the age group between 19 and 26 years of age.

All registrants are also, required by the Selective Service Law of 1948 to keep their Local Board supplied with their latest address and to notify it of any fact that might change their classification.

It has also been brought to the attention of the Board, by the late registration of men who are in the Reserve, that they did not register at the time of registration in the fall of 1948. These men should have registered, if they are in either the active or inactive reserve corps, officer or enlisted personnel.

Following is a list of registrants who have not returned their questionnaires, and it is requested by the Board that if any one knows their present address, either contact the registrant or Local Board No. 18, Hereford.

Low Pay Biamed For Loss Of Best Teachers in the Colleges of Texas

AUSTIN: Low salaries and poor working conditions were blamed Tuesday for "driving Texas' best college professors out of the state."

Dr. Sam Barton, Denton, president of the College Classroom Teachers Association, said the entire educational system of the state will suffer and Texas children will be deprived of adequate education. The association is a unit of the Texas State Teachers Association.

He contended that Texas' state-supported institutions of higher learning, for the most part, are rapidly becoming fourth-rate colleges and universities as a result of low pay, inadequate staffs and crowded antique classrooms and laboratories.

"Two recent surveys bear out our contention that Texas education as a whole is suffering because of the unattractiveness of state-supported colleges to the teaching profession," Dr. Barton said.

"The improvement of the Texas public schools has been toward acceptable levels in recent years, but a crisis is heading up in the state as more and more of our top-level professors depart."

"Poorly trained graduates of colleges and universities cannot maintain good public school standards. Fourth-rate college training defeats the purpose of higher standards in public schools and tends to make them impossible. It will impoverish the state."

Dr. Barton asserted a survey this year discloses that among thirty-eight comparable institutions, four of Texas best colleges ranged distinctly below average in pay.

Father's Day Cards and many other appropriate gifts for Father's Day at Warwick's.

WHAT'S IN MUSIC
Wagner's music is better than it sounds.

"The top professorial salary in these thirty-eight schools is $6,500 more than the University of Texas scale," he said. "Since the university's salary schedule is the highest in the state, this means most college salaries in Texas fall in the lowest quarter level of the range of those thirty-eight institutions."

The other survey shows Texas is not holding its best professors, Dr. Barton said. Nor is it attracting top instructors from outside the state.

Seven state-supported colleges had 171 teachers with doctor's degrees in 1946," he said. "A survey in March disclosed that fifty-one left the state for better jobs prior to 1949. Only thirty with similar qualifications could be found to replace them."

"Many of the replacements are 'internes.' As soon as they gain experience, better offers will cause them to move on to superior positions."

"Chest thumping Texans may be surprised to learn that many of these departing professors have accepted positions in other southern states such as Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama, which are generally regarded as well down the education ladder."

"There are too few buildings on state-supported campuses. Too, there are many overcrowded buildings which should be junked or turned into honest museums."

"There is no such thing as a forty-hour week for college professors. The classes are so large and numerous that the average instructor spends from sixty to seventy hours preparing to teach, teaching, scoring papers and in other work."

"It is little wonder that the profession is losing its best people not only to schools in other states, but to government and industry, where the pay is higher and the hours shorter."

State Auditor Puts New School Law In Effect

State Auditor C. H. Cavness, under Senate Bill 116 which was signed by Governor Jester recently, given the job of temporarily performing the duties of Commissioner of Education thereunder, stated that plans are being made to put the Act into effect just as soon as possible. "Getting the public school Foundation Program financing section of the Gilmer-Aikin laws under way will be a rather large task, which I did not ask for," said Cavness, "but with the cooperation of everybody involved I am sure we can do it and on time. In a few days we will have set up a corps of competent public school administrators, tax men and program organizers who will work with the School Boards, the County and School District Superintendents, and the school Tax officials—and will get the necessary information into the hands of all concerned with little delay."

Cavness announced that the director of the State Auditor's Foundation School Program Act division will be L. P. Sturgeon, on leave from his position as superintendent of the New Boston, Texas, school system. He stated "We are fortunate in securing Mr. Sturgeon's services—he has been in school work for many years, having been superintendent at New Boston for the past eight. He is past president of the State Association of Equalization Schools, is a director of the Texas Association of School Administrators, and is a member of the Executive Committee of the Texas State Teachers Association. He received both his B. A. and M. A. degrees at East Texas State Teachers College of Commerce."

J. Warren Hitt, personnel and research director on leave from the Austin Public Schools, will be assistant director; Wm. A. Harrison, now First Assistant State Auditor, will be Audits Supervisor; and P. E. Hutchinson will head the program review section. Cavness also announced, stating "All of these men have excellent qualifications for this work. For several years Mr. Hutchinson has been with the Joint Committee of the Legislature on the State's program of Equalization and Transportation Aid to schools."

Further announcements will be made soon of additional key personnel and of procedures to be followed by putting the State's new public school financing program into effect, Cavness said.

Glenn-Sharp Double Ring Rites
Read in Warren, Ohio, June 3

MRS. JOHN T. SHARP

Miss Marjorie Sue Glenn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Boyd Glenn, 541 Tod N. W., Warren, Ohio, became the bride of Dr. John T. Sharp, son of the Reverend and Mrs. John R. Sharp of Canyon, on June 3, 1949.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Dr. A. W. Wishart, Minister of the Presbyterian Church, Warren, Ohio, at 1 p. m., at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Richard Rogers, 379 Perkinswood Blvd., Warren, Ohio. The spacious home was profusely decorated with garden flowers and the stair railing was festooned with orange blossoms tied with white satin ribbons. Vows were exchanged before the fireplace which was banked with white peonies, roses, and greenery. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Richard Rogers, as matron of honor. Mrs. Rogers wore an aqua silk dress with brown accessories and a shoulder corsage of brown orchids. Dr. Rogers served as best man.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a pink silk shantung dress with white accessories and a shoulder corsage of orchids.

She carried the prayer book used in the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Sharp in 1921, and wore the gold locket which had belonged to the maternal grandmother of the bridegroom.

A small reception followed the ceremony. The candle lighted table, covered with a maderia cut work cloth, was centered with a three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. James Taylor cut the cake, after the first piece was cut by the bride and bridegroom, and Mrs. John Hiltabiddle presided at the punch bowl.

Dr. and Mrs. Sharp are taking a wedding trip to Martha's Vineyard Island, off the Massachusetts coast, and after July 1, will be at home at No. 4 Rope Ferry Road, Hanover, New Hampshire. Dr. Sharp will be a Medical Resident at the Veterans Administration Hospital at White River Junction, Vermont.

The bride is a 1947 graduate of Presbyterian Hospital School of Nursing, New York City, and was, until her marriage, a head nurse at Presbyterian Hospital, Columbia University Medical Center, New York.

Dr. Sharp is a graduate of West Texas State High School, and did his freshman year at West Texas State College. He attended Antioch College in Yellow Springs, Ohio, until mobilized in V-12 Navy program and sent to Denison University, Denison, Ohio, to complete his pre-medical work. He received his M. D. degree from Columbia University's College of Physicians and Surgeons where he was a scholarship student. His medical internship was done at Presbyterian Hospital, New York City and he spent last year at Presbyterian Hospital as assistant resident in medicine.

Expectant Fathers
Seeking a Day
In Their Honor

There seems to be no end to the mania for days, weeks and special occasions to be commemorated and, perhaps, promoted.

From New York comes information that National Expectant Fathers' Day will be celebrated on June 18th. We can imagine few sillier enterprises than the promotion of such a day.

If there is anybody in the country, including expectant fathers, ready to join or sponsor such a commemoration, we suspect that the sanity of the offspring ought to be investigated as early as possible.

Why Read? Better

Why learn to read?

This sounds like a silly question, but there are so many people who seldom seek to expand their mental vision through the simple process of reading a book.

With public libraries available, there is no need for an individual to go to any unnecessary expense to become informed. For a few cents or less, a volume can be secured upon almost any subject that interests the individual.

New Dealers among the group of economists who have a pipe line to the White House are being viewed by the President with something of a jaundiced eye. The reason is that they told Mr. Truman on a plan to fight inflation when it was apparent to most other people that the problem ahead was to be deflation.

Kill The Flies!
Kill The Flies!!
Kill The Flies!!!

During the last several summers, considerable enthusiasm was shown by various local organizations such as Chambers of Commerce, many Civic Organizations, and others in the arranging of a fly eradication program. Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, says that for taking interest in this work, the responsible parties are to be commended.

However, without year-round community sanitation the ultimate result, which is so important has not always been too successful; in some areas this has given rise to rumors that flies are DDT resistant.

"The Texas State Department of Health heartily endorses a fly spraying program, provided it includes a general clean-up program carried out during the entire year," Dr. Cox said. For example, why spray a garbage heap that not only invites but actually breeds flies when it should be removed. Why spray the city dump when it really should be covered. I fear the unplanned spraying program is similar to the application of perfume or toilet water to overcome B. O. or the application of powder to cover dirt.

In a well-planned fly control program, Dr. Cox declared, all places where flies gather, such as dumps, rubbish piles, garbage piles, decaying vegetation should be cleaned up by hauling away and burying. Proper garbage and rubbish containers with fly tight covers should be demanded from all. All buildings should be screened. Then, secure a sprayer outfit, preferably with one or more hoses each manned by a skilled operator to spray the areas where flies and other insects will light. It does little good to spray the center of the street, the ball diamond, or the sidewalks. Spray the surfaces where insects light or breed.

A residual spray remains active until the DDT washes off or is covered with grease, dirt or soot. This usually lasts four to six weeks. After that, a second spray is recommended provided the item of clean-up is still being carried out.

Ripley and Cartoons

Robert L. Ripley, originator of the "Believe It or Not" cartoons, was working for a San Francisco newspaper as sports cartoonist in 1918 when he published his first illustration of the type which has been translated into seventeen languages in thirty-eight foreign countries.

The first "Believe It or Not" was published in 1918. In 1928, a newspaper publisher persuaded the cartoonist to put a collection of them in a book. This book was seen by William Randolph Hearst, who ordered his feature syndicate to sign Mr. Ripley for "over $100,000 the first year."

This is about as strange as anything else recorded in the "Believe It or Not" cartoons. For ten years, the cartoonist worked on his feature, only to have it zoom into fame and cash through the accidental inspection of his book by Mr. Hearst.

Safety Council Urges That You Take Precaution "Be Alive on the Fifth"

Hundreds of people are killed every year by accidents during the Fourth of July holiday. That plain fact is borne out year after year by figures from the National Safety Council.

Why are they killed?

It is easy to advance a lot of deeply philosophical reasons. The hurry-up world we live in. The adventurous, take-a-chance American spirit. The animalistic discourtesy of man to man.

But there is no need to do any heavy thinking on the reasons for the holiday death toll. The reasons are quite simple, really. For one thing, more people are driving automobiles. When more cars are on the road and they are traveling farther, the chances for accident go up proportionately.

Pleasure-bent drivers usually are in a hurry. They want to get somewhere to start having fun, or they are pounding along on the first leg of a summer vacation trip. A lot of people are doing the same thing, and it becomes a sort of race. Driving too fast, passing when the view is obstructed, following other cars too closely—all seem important in the senseless race to save a minute. Beaches are crowded, too. A lot of occasional swimmers overestimate their skill or their endurance. Children excited by holiday fever elude adult supervision. Amateur boat handlers find that small boats require a practiced hand and prudent conduct.

During this holiday, some parents permit their children to play with fire and explosives that on any other day would bring swift and certain rebuke. Even adults, not satisfied with the machine gun splatter of firecrackers, have been known to rig up lethal concoctions of dynamite.

The tonic of celebration leads to excesses in exercise, eating, exposure to sun.

All of these things contribute to Fourth of July deaths. And it would be simple to prevent such accidents.

Don't take a trip just be going somewhere. There are many delights near home. Drive slower. Don't become impatient at unimportant delays. Be courteous to other drivers and pedestrians.

Be temperate in your swimming. Keep an alert eye on children. Take your family to a public fireworks display instead of risking tragedy by personal handling of explosives.

These are the simple things that will insure delight in a summer holiday—that will bring you home relaxed and refreshed, that will see your children safely in bed to dream of the day's pleasures. These are the simple things that will make this Fourth of July mean joy instead of tragedy.

Kipling said it: "Teach us delight in simple things and mirth that has no bitter springs."

Water Is a Big Item of Expense To City New York

Many people think that water and air are free and while the statement is true as to air, it is not correct as to water in connection with the necessities of those who live in the great cities of the world.

For example, the City of New York, has expended about $800,000,000 in its water supply facilities. Even now, additional dams and concrete-lined tunnels are being constructed to guarantee the necessary daily supply of water for the nearly eight million people who are served in this metropolitan area.

Clinton P. Anderson Sees Opportunity Offered on Farm

Senator Clinton P. Anderson, of New Mexico, a former Secretary of Agriculture tells college graduates that they will have no shortage of opportunity on the nation's farms where there exists "a great field for practical endeavor."

This is an interesting statement because many persons have been under the impression that agricultural activity fails to present opportunities sufficient to attract the younger generation. While there are exceptions in Randall county and all over the nation, the general impression is that the farmer has a hard life, beset by the perils of weather and with not much promise of a competency in connection with financial rewards.

It is encouraging to hear the opinion of Mr. Anderson. It tends to confirm the belief that agriculture, like other economic enterprises, offers improving rewards for intelligent, hard-working and industrious individuals.

Put Ex-Presidents In Senate Offered By Herbert Hoover

Mr. Herbert Hoover, former President, thinks that it might be well to permit Presidents, upon retiring from office, to become members of the Senate, but without the right to vote.

The suggestion follows long years of speculation as to how the nation can make use of the experience gained by a Chief Executive. The ex-president would be in the Senate, available to give information on any subject before that body and through it to the country at large.

We see no great objection to the Hoover proposal, which would, at least give our ex-presidents a job with a salary. The possibility exists that, if divorced from an idea of a return to office, the advice of the former chief executive might be valuable.

"What is the hardest job you have faced since your college days?" "Living them down."

Censorship Will Be Obnoxious to American People

Under an order recently issued by the Secretary of Defense, the most complete censorship yet known in this country over the dissemination of information of a military character has been established.

The order established what is known as the "Security Review Branch." This branch is given the power to review informational material of any nature from military sources, and to decide what may be made public. The military sources covered by the order include, along with regular military personnel, civilian employees of the various branches of military service, active reserve personnel, retired military personnel, and so on. The order even includes "transcript of testimony before committees of Congress in executive session by personnel subject to military jurisdiction."

All of us realize the necessity for guarding information which might be of value to foreign powers and which affects our national security. But that is a very different thing from the creation of an all-powerful censorship board which, if it so desires, can prevent any and all debate upon policy by the people who know the most about it, and abolish informed criticism. If that happens, the citizens of the country will know as much or as little about military affairs as the Secretary of Defense permits.

Writing in the Pensacola, Florida, Journal, George Dixon says of the order: "Its net effect would seem to be as absolute as anything ever issued by the Soviet Cominform." Censorship of this kind should be repugnant to a free people.

When people begin to praise you, to your face, it might be a good idea to start an investigation of yourself—and them.

The Ever-expanding Ripple....

For every inch of lines in the circles West Texas Gas Company has built 7 1/2 miles of transmissions and distribution pipe lines.

SCALE: 1 INCH = 7 1/2 MI.

Continues to Grow

In 1927... when you, for the first time, didn't have to worry about ordering fuel, getting up early to build fires, carrying out ashes and many other tiresome tasks... West Texas Gas Company had just started a small ripple of its building program.

Since 1927 we have built over 1,300 additional miles of transmission and distribution lines, seven compressor stations, obtained additional supplies of natural gas and built and installed many other miscellaneous facilities necessary to furnish you good natural gas service.

And still... the first ripple of building continues. This year West Texas Gas Company will invest over $2,225,000.00 to build additional pipe lines, make additions to compressor stations and install other facilities to maintain good natural gas service, high in quality, low in price... the best bargain in your family budget.

West Texas Gas Company

Helping Build West Texas Since 1927

Like a ripple on a lake, we have continued to expand our facilities. Today there are over 1,700 miles (shown in graph) of transmission and distribution lines serving you. In many instances nature was a barrier to this construction. Mile after mile of some of the lines are bedded in rock. Dynamite had to be used to clear ditches for the lines. But in face of difficult construction, West Texas Gas Company has continued to build in order to furnish you good gas service.

Fairview Breezes

We have had showers all the past week. Would be glad for some fair weather. If weather is favorable harvest will probably begin by the first of next week in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Wesley and Lavena Amerson entertained the people of this community with a party in their home Saturday evening. A large crowd was present for the occasion. Five tables of progressive "42" was enjoyed by the adults. High score was won by Mrs. Curley Myers and Finis Brazzil. Low score was won by Tom Rogers and Madge Sutton.

Mrs. Holman will stay with Mrs. J. N. Duff for a week or 10 days to care for her while she is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Airhart and Angela, with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hext, visited Sunday afternoon in the J. W. Wesley home.

Troy Wayne Sharpes and Chas. Wilson visited Arlen Ray Wesley Sunday.

E. M. Wilson went to Marlin to take treatments the past week. He plans to stay there two weeks.

Joyce Gazzaway underwent a tonsillectomy last week and is recuperating at the home of her mother.

The Amerson children had a family reunion Sunday at the home of their father, F. O. Amerson. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Amerson, Patricia and Jean Amerson of Elroy, Arizona; Mr. and Mrs. Dean Cage and Linda, Mr. and Mrs. Junior Morgan of Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. Coye Elkins of Tulla; Misses Vesta and La Vena Amerson of Happy; and Donell Amerson. The only one unable to be present was Hollis Amerson with Mrs. Amerson and sons of Andrews, Texas.

Brother Max Stallings will preach for us next Sunday. He was here last summer with a volunteer band and was liked a lot. Come hear this young preacher.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Wann visited part of the past week with the Hollis Shipman family and will spend part of this week visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Schaeffer. Mrs. Wann and Mrs. Schaeffer are sisters.

Mrs. J. W. Wesley, Mrs. H. C. Evans, Miss Loveta Evans, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Wann, Mrs. G. E. Wesley and Lavena Amerson all were shoppers in Amarillo Monday.

J. W. Wesley called in the S. A. Evans home Sunday morning.

Etta Jean Sharpes visited Betty and Laquita Patterson Sunday.

Mrs. J. C. and Mrs. Hoyle Shipman are to return from Seymour Monday.

Friday is club day. The demonstration club will meet with Mrs. S. F. Sharpes.

Mrs. Sharpes honored Mrs. Melvin Schaeffer with a pink and blue shower Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. J. W. Wesley was cohostess. Refreshments of tomato juice, Ritz peanut butter and cheese sandwiches and mints were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Schaeffer have moved into their new home.

Arlen Ray Wesley worked a part of the week for his uncle, G. E. Wesley.

Americans Fail To Understand Fight of Church and State

Further negotiations between the Government of Czechoslovakia and the Roman Catholic church are termed "vain and hopeless" by church officials in Prague and the reason assigned for the conclusion is that the State has determined to administer the entire educational apparatus.

It is sometime difficult for people in the United States to understand the conflicting aims of Church and State in various European countries. In Czechoslovakia, for example, the Catholic Church asserts that it cannot abandon the right to educate youth. All Church schools have been placed under State control.

In the United States, where Church and State are separate, it is difficult to understand how such an argument could arise. With our public schools in the control of the State, there is no ban on the operation of Church schools, either on the level of the grade or the university.

Of course, the Government does not support Church schools in this country nor does any religious organization have any control over the public schools.

Vacation Bible School in Session at M. E. Church

Vacation Bible school began at the Methodist Church Monday, June 13, and will continue through June 24, from 9 a. m. until 11 a. m.

An interesting, worthwhile program is under way in each of the four departments under the supervision of the following leaders: Mrs. Lewis Stoelzing, kindergarten; Mrs. T. W. Collins, primary; Mrs. Hubert Young, Jr., and Mrs. M. D. Shepherd, intermediate. In addition to the chairman twelve co-workers are assisting with various activities in the study period.

Mrs. Hubert Thomson is in charge of refreshments and Mrs. Larry Holman is general director.

A cordial invitation is extended to all children between the ages of 4 and 15 years inclusive, to attend.

Flag Day Was Set In 1916 By Late President Wilson

The Flag of the United States, with its thirteen stripes and a star for each State, was adopted by the Continental Congress on June 14, 1777, upon motion of John Adams.

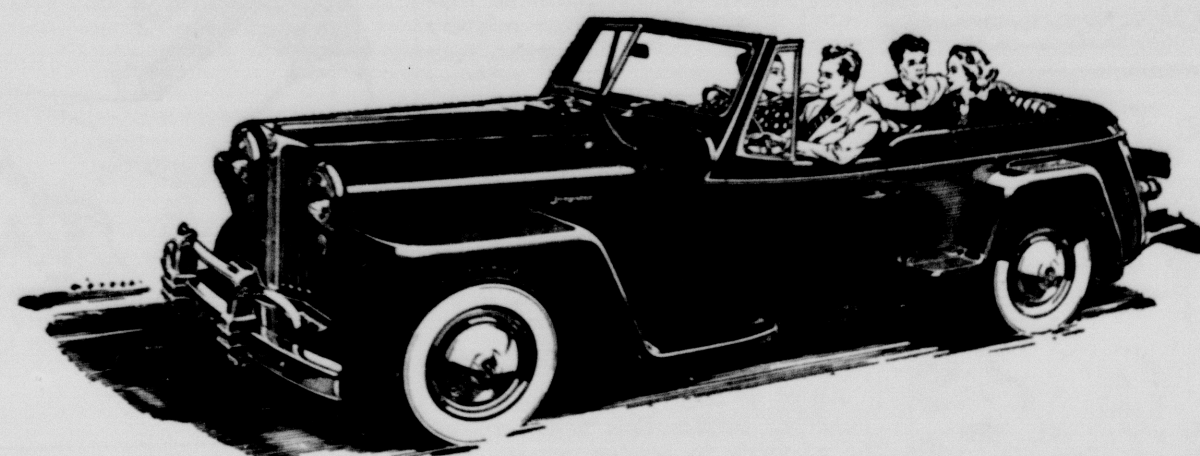

Of course, in that day, the flag had thirteen stripes and thirteen stars. Thereafter, a new stripe and a new star was added when states were admitted, so that, at one time, the flag had fifteen stripes and fifteen stars. However, in 1818, President Monroe signed a bill which provided the present design, with the thirteen stripes and a star for each state.

The observance of Flag Day was suggested by President Woodrow Wilson, in 1916, who proclaimed June 14th as the anniversary to be commemorated. Since that time, the people of the United States have used the day as an occasion to pay homage to the flag and what it represents.

It is very important, in connection with the observance of Flag Day, that the people of the country give thought to what the emblem of this nation means to them and to the world. There must be no blind obedience to the flag but rather a
